

Introducing lab tests in your virtual medical care

Telehealth Health lab ordering key benefits

- Expand treatment options and reduce diagnostic delays
- Improve care
- Increase convenience for patients and providers
- Automatically update when results are posted
- Follow-up appointments for member peace of mind

At Teladoc Health, your physician can provide you with lab requisitions right from the Teladoc Health platform during your telemedicine visit!

Lab tests, if needed, are important diagnostic tools which allow physicians to expand the breadth and depth of your diagnoses. Diagnostic testing enhances virtual visits by giving your physician the ability to order a wide range of diagnostic resources, and will allow you to rest even more assured in your care.

How it works

Order

Providers create requisition orders which are sent directly to the member via secure platform.

Test

The member visits a lab that is convenient to them using the requisition provided.

Results

Once results are received, providers will book a follow-up appointment to review results.
